SINGER, COMEDIAN, VENTRILOQUIST, CELEBRITY IMPRESSIONIST

MICHAEL MINOR

If you are a fan of Terry Fator from America's Got Talent and now a headliner in Las Vegas you will love this show!

Michael began his singing career in first grade when he performed a solo on stage at his elementary school. From then on, Michael performed anywhere he could, even if it was in his Grandma's living room. While attending Luther College Michael continued singing as a member of the world renowned Nordic Choir. After college, Michael played many lead roles in musicals all over the country. His most memorable role was Curly in "Oklahoma". As a guy from Iowa, Michael was thrilled when he was hired to perform at Caesar's Palace in Las Vegas. After Vegas, Michael moved to Branson, Missouri where he was emcee, lead vocalist and rider for the Dixie Stampede, and then vocalist for the Shoji Tabuchi Show. Three years later, Michael relocated to Lancaster to perform at American Music Theatre where Michael was a featured entertainer for 10 years.

If you like Terry Fator, you will love Michael! As a singing ventriloquist, he can impersonate both old and new entertainers alike. He will impress you with the speed at which he and his "Special Guests" can take turns singing a song together, as well as amaze you with his dead-on impersonations. Michael is an incredible and versatile singer who can sing every style from Country to Broadway and Crooners to Rock 'n Roll. Michael likes to think of the audience as family, so don't be surprised if he grabs you for a joke, a dance or even to sing with him. Sit back, relax and enjoy the many talents of Michael Minor.
